From American Breweries
Wednesdays 5:30 to 6:30pm In The Lounge

April 17th

Ballast Point Sculpin IPA –San Diego, California-The Sculpin IPA is bright with aromas of apricot, peach, mango and lemon. Its lighter body also brings out the crispness of the hops. This delicious Ballast Point Ale took a Bronze Medal at the 2007 Great American Beer Festival.

April 24th

Cisco Sankey Light –Nantucket, Massachusetts- This American Golden Lager is light-bodied with tremendous balance and distinct hop character. At 3.8% alcohol and 126 calories this light beer has true flavor and body while being easy to drink. It is named after the famous lighthouse that has stood on a bluff on the southeastern side of Nantucket Island since 1849.

May 1st

Firestone Walker Union Jack –Union Jack abounds with hop aroma and character. In fact this well balanced, west coast IPA is double dry hopped, giving it more and more of the grapefruit, citrus hop aroma and flavor it is known for. Overall it utilizes over four pounds of pacific-northwest hops per barrel.

May 8th

Left Hand Stranger –Longmont, Colorado- Sane or senseless? Harmless or harmful? Sometimes it takes a while to get to know a stranger. Initial impressions are not always reality, so you must delve deeper. Beyond the initial floral hop aromas, malt sweetness is revealed, yet with a spicy undertone that exposes a very rye sense of humor.

May 15th

Sierra Nevada Kellerweis – Chico, California- Kellerweis is one of the only American Hefeweizens made using the traditional Bavarian style of open fermentation. This difficult and labor-intensive technique adds uncommon depth and flavor complexity.Hazy-golden hefeweizen is deeply flavorful, refreshing and perfect for a sunny day.

May 22th

Smuttynose Brown Dog- Portsmouth, New Hampshire- Old Brown Dog has been cited as a classic example of the "American Brown Ale" style of beer. Compared to a typical English Brown Ale, Old Brown Dog is fuller-bodied and more strongly hopped. This brown ale works exceptionally well with steak, cured meats, barbecue, game and cheese.

May 29th

Troegs Trogenator – Harrisburg, Pennsylvania- Troegenator Double Bock is a dark,strong lager. Bronze to brown color, fluffy white head and bready malt aroma. The Troegenator leaves a rich, warming feeling and subtle spicy flavors.

June 5th

Victory Headwaters Pale Ale- Downington, Pennsylvania- Offering of a citrus and pine hop taste, Headwaters is flavorful, but is also very clean tasting and finishing and isn't too overly hoppy or hard to drink. One of the few all-year round beers by Victory so you can give it a try whenever you're looking for the next great pale ale.
